About AMT Training

CPD – whenever you need it

Throughout their careers, finance professionals need hassle-free access to continuing professional development. AMT Training is a global CPD provider, provides new hire training and is the preferred trainer for many of the world's leading financial organisations. Our highly regarded face-to-face training, online resources and support materials are available whenever and wherever you need them – which explains our hard-earned reputation as the leader in our chosen field.

Global experts

AMT's network spans EMEA, APAC and the Americas. Our people have first-hand experience of investment banking and the diversity of our team reflects the regions, sectors, subject areas, languages and cultures with which we work. Experienced client-service managers, working out of our offices in London, New York and Hong Kong, provide local support for customers across the world's largest financial centres.

Up-to-the-minute education

You can rely on AMT to keep you up to date with the latest developments in your field. We lead the way with substantial investment in technology, course materials and targeted publications, and we expect our authors and trainers to keep abreast of current practice in the sectors and jurisdictions for which they write and teach. Our AMT Online (AMTO) platform gives you instant access to a vast selection of resources.

Aligned with business objectives

Working with your Learning and Development team, our Client Service Managers identify and define specific learning requirements, matching program content with your business objectives. We believe in building long-term relationships based on full understanding of our clients' businesses, allowing us to deliver comprehensive, cost-effective learning programs for organisations of all sizes; we offer complete consistency of service whether delivering limited local interventions or large scale international programs.

Extensive personal support

AMT's global client-service team manages training calendars, course logistics, venues, attendance, evaluation and invoicing. Our client-service managers provide individual support for delegates, guiding them through AMTO and answering their questions before, during and after their programs. At a personal level, you can expect the same long-term approach to understanding your needs and tailoring your learning accordingly.

Fully accredited for CPD

All AMT courses are officially accredited by the Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment (CISI). Each full day course can be logged as 6 hours of CPD for institutions including ICAEW, ACCA and CFA.

Why choose AMT?

PEOPLE, EXPERTISE, FLEXIBILITY AND SUPPORT

Exceptional Trainers

Our global network spans EMEA, APAC and the Americas, and our hand-picked trainers have first-hand experience of investment banking. Our teaching teams keep up to date on the sectors and jurisdictions in which they teach, ensuring up-to-the-minute familiarity with regulatory and legislative changes. It's no coincidence that AMT delivers training for the majority of the top 10 financial institutions globally.

Exceptional Content

Our interactive face-to-face training and practical online courses instil and reinforce topic-based technical skills for finance professionals, supporting their continuing professional development at every stage of their careers. We invest heavily in course materials and supporting resources for in-house and public training, whether face-to-face or online.

Exceptional Support

Our local client-service teams are there at every stage of your training program, from initial enquiry to post-training delegate support. Expect a focused, personal service based on a thorough understanding of your organisation's and your delegates' needs and enjoy complete peace of mind while we manage calendars, course logistics, venues, attendance and evaluation.

Exceptional Flexibility

No two organisations are identical; at AMT, we recognise each client's unique training needs and tailor our courses accordingly. Where delegates need something that goes beyond the structured content of our public courses, we have the flexibility to adapt program content, incorporating client models, methodologies and in-house systems. Whatever the degree of customisation, you retain the choice of in-house or off-site delivery.

Exceptional Resources

Our investment in technology, course materials and targeted publications is second to none; our huge library of digital and paper-based resources is subject to rigorous review and update, maintaining its freshness and currency. Our AMTO platform gives you instant access to the latest versions of resources, as and when you need them.

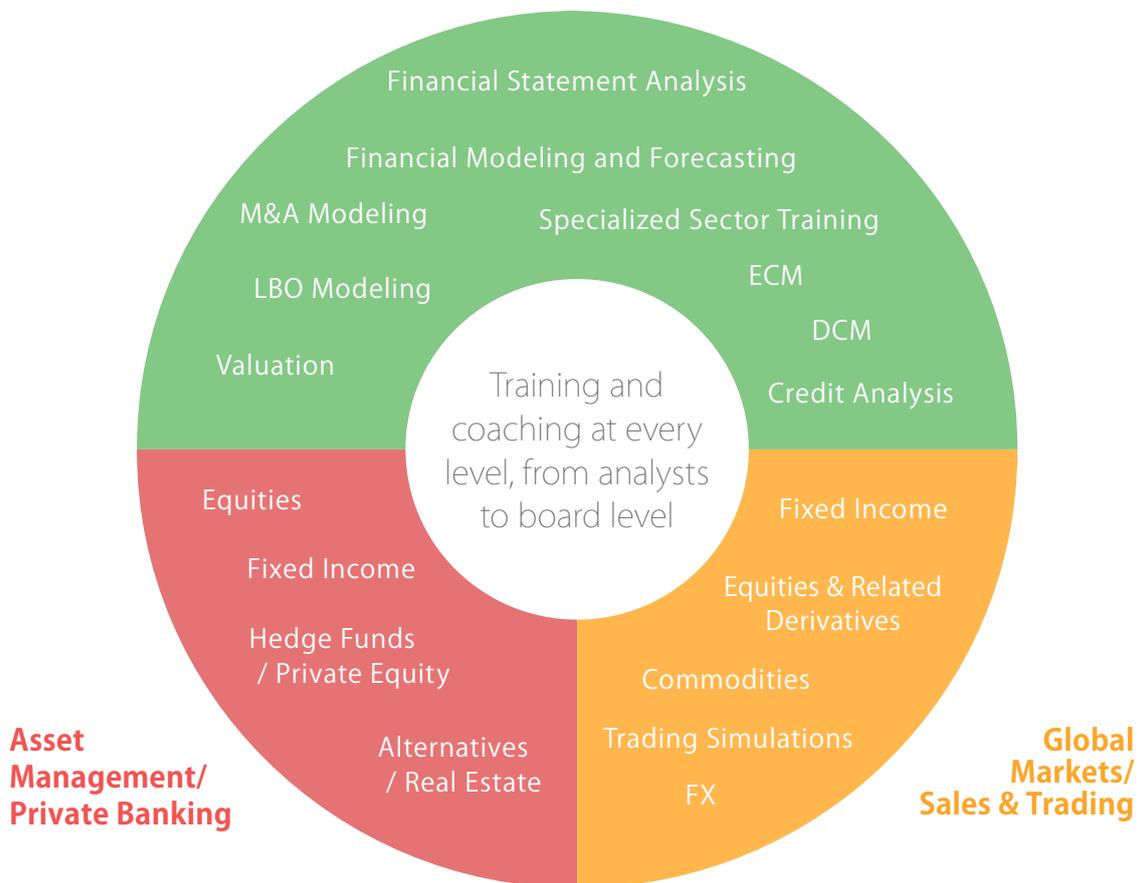

Sector experience

CREDIBILITY, TRUST, FOCUS AND RESULTS

We work with leading institutions and outstanding individuals across the financial sector. Our substantial expertise in investment banking provides a solid foundation for sustained success, both for client organisations and for their staff. We specialise in equipping finance professionals to achieve personal and corporate success throughout their careers.

Businesses across the sector and people at every level in the organisation benefit from AMT's proven, client-focused approach to continued professional development.

Our people

ENERGY AND A COMMITMENT TO MUTUAL SUCCESS

Whichever AMT office you deal with, you'll experience the same energy and focus on achieving your goals, whether at a corporate or an individual level – before, during and after your programs are delivered.

Not only do our highly experienced trainers bring extensive subject knowledge to the table, their sound bulge-bracket banking expertise equips them to teach topic-based programs that align with your specific needs – using your tools, your methodology and your in-house systems.

Our regional client-service and materials teams exist to make your life simpler; their task is to manage every aspect of your training program – so you don't have to! From course design to delegate support, your local office will offer you options and take care of the details. Maybe you can't buy peace of mind, but with AMT it's part of the service.

“ Our trainer made lessons very enjoyable, and shared a wide breadth of practical case studies. I really enjoyed learning from him, and I hope to learn from him again ”

Innovative flexible delivery

PERSONALISED LEARNING – WHENEVER YOU NEED IT

AMT Online

Our AMTO learning portal is the gateway to all the resources that delegates and their sponsoring organisations need before, during and after their programs. AMTO embraces the digital learning environment and provides access to course notes, class recordings, study materials and unlimited custom resources.

Delegates proceed at their own pace, connecting to AMTO anywhere they have internet access. Sponsoring organisations have the option to monitor delegate progress and performance, and to create and deliver additional course content to match emerging needs.

Why AMTO?

Effective preparation

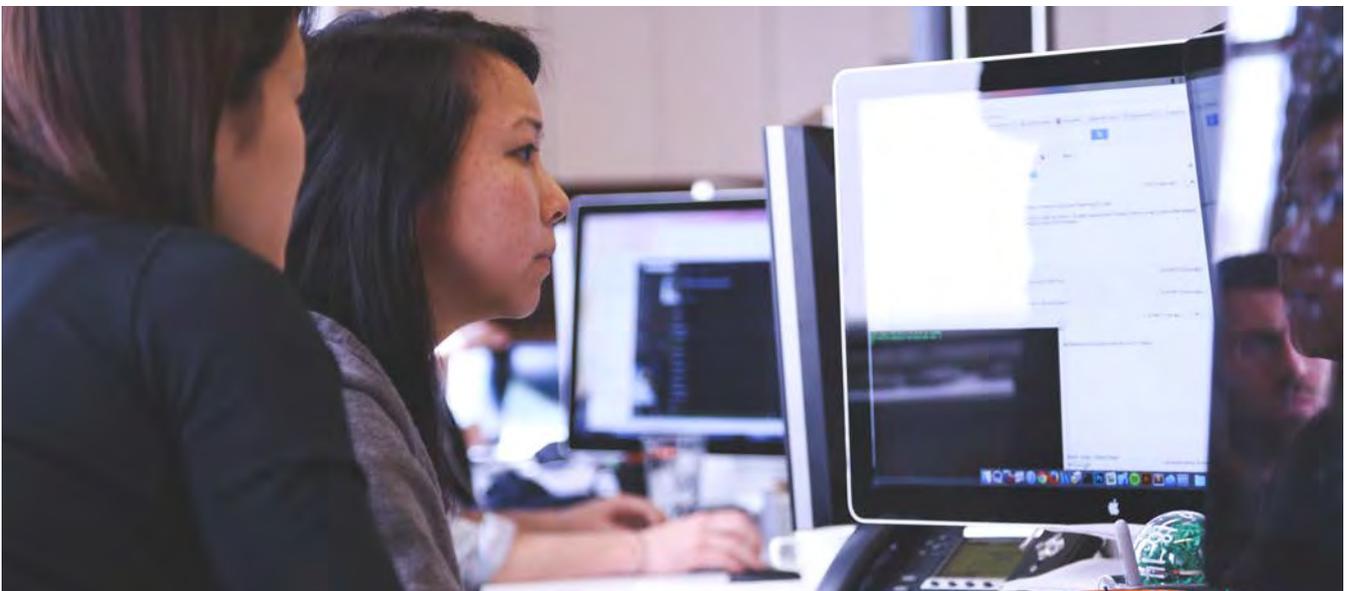

Study materials are available in advance, enabling delegates to prepare effectively for classroom sessions.

Self-study

Delegates have 24/7 access to course notes, class recordings, study materials, allowing them to study at their own pace.

Replay and reinforce

AMTO resources include recordings of every topic in course notes; unlimited review is available to delegates wanting to reinforce classroom learning.

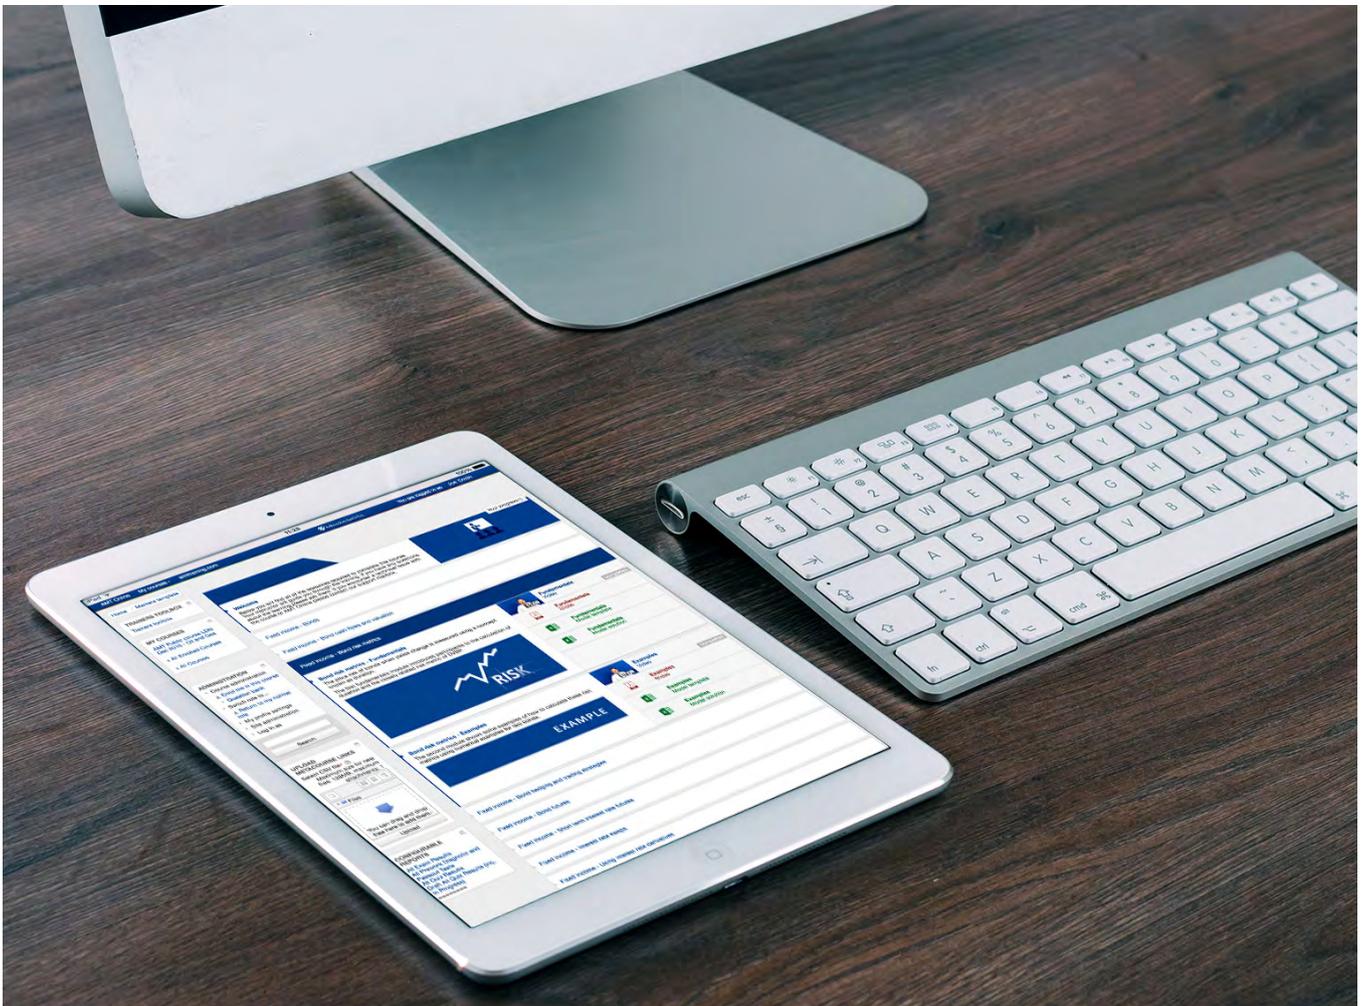

Webinars

Via AMTO, delegates have access to AMT's recorded webinars where subject-matter experts deliver innovative learning programs.

Review and refine

By monitoring delegates progress, sponsoring organisations have the option to adapt course content to match emerging needs.

In-house training

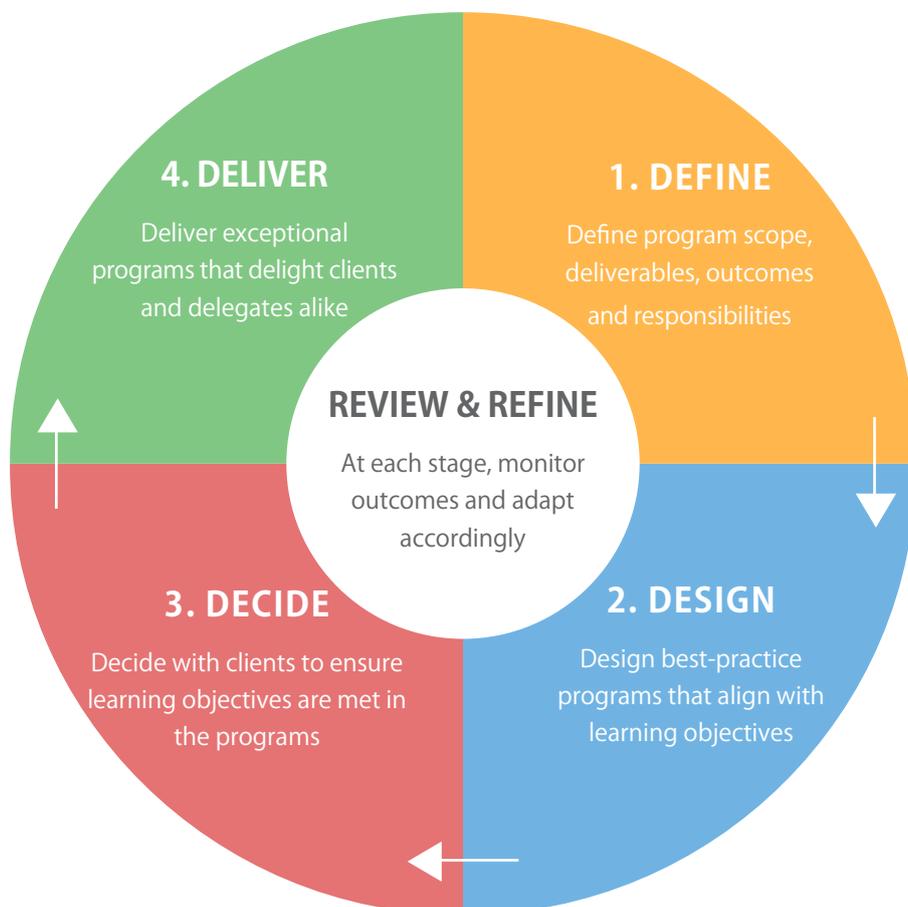

UNDERSTANDING YOUR CHALLENGES

Long-term relationships allow AMT's people to develop an in-depth understanding of each client's organisation. We identify unique training needs and define specific learning objectives, tailoring our courses to align with your business objectives.

In-house programs

Where a sponsoring organisation needs something that goes beyond the structured content of our public courses, we have the flexibility to adapt program content and to incorporate client models, methodologies and in-house systems. Whatever the degree of customisation, the client retains the choice of local or off-site delivery.

In-house training provides a personal, tailored approach to meeting your training needs. Our programs are delivered by subject-matter experts, assigned specifically for your delegates at your chosen location. AMT delivers a unique training solution that satisfies delegates' learning needs while achieving the agreed business objectives.

“Our trainer provided excellent training during the graduate training program on financial modeling and valuation, delivering it in a very clear and attentive manner **”
